

2-2-24
c1

LINCOLNIANA

TWO SERMONS AND A LETTER

OFFERED BY

THOMAS J. TAYLOR, TAUNTON, MASS.

LINCOLNIANA

---

THOMAS J. TAYLOR begs to offer two Sermons occasioned by the Assassination of President Lincoln, and nowprinted, privately, for the first time, by the Moorsfield Prefs, on French hand-made paper, in editions of 52 numbered copies. These Sermons (as well as the Brooks Letter) were printed from manuscripts in the possession of the subscriber, who has secured a few copies of each.

BLAKE, M. On Account of / the Assassination of / President Lincoln / a Sermon / delivered in Winslow Congregational / Church, Taunton, Massachusetts, on / Sunday, April 23, 1865, by the Pastor / Mortimer Blake, D. D. / Champlain / Privately Printed at the Moorsfield Prefs / 1925 Royal 8vo, pp 19, 52 copies.

A Foreword gives a sketch of the life of Dr. Blake.

BLAKE, M. Human Depravity / John Wilkes Booth / A Sermon / Occasioned by the Assassination of / President Lincoln, and delivered in / the Winslow Congregational Church, / Taunton, Massachusetts, on Sunday / Evening, April 23, 1865, by the Pastor / Mortimer Blake, D. D. / Champlain / Privately Printed at the Moorsfield Prefs / 1925 Royal 8vo, pp 17, 52 copies.

Students and collectors of Lincolnia will recognize in this Sermon an unusual, if not unique, item—a Sermon based upon the character and crime of John Wilkes Booth. With a Foreword.

These Sermons are offered at $5.00 each, postpaid.

BROOKS, N. The/Character and Religion/of/President Lincoln/A Letter of/Noah Brooks/May 10, 1865/Champlain/Private Printed/1919 Royal
8vo, pp 11 (1), 63 copies.

This Letter, written to Rev. Isaac P. Langworthy, of Chelsea, Massachusetts, less than a month after the death of President Lincoln, is of historical value as it throws new and authoritative light upon Lincoln's religious beliefs. With a Foreword.

The few remaining copies of this Letter are offered at $10.00 each, postpaid.

THOMAS J. TAYLOR
TAUNTON - - - MASSACHUSETTS

